(Printer's Service to the China Mail.)

GENOA TREATY STILL

GERMANY'S PROPOSED PLEDGE

CERTAIN RIGHTS FORFEIT

GENOA, April 18.
The Allies and Little Entente have jointly sent a letter to the German delegation declaring that the conclusion of the Russo-German treaty while the conference was in session violates the conditions to which Germany pledged herself on entering the conference. Germany has therefore renounced further participation in the discussion of conditions of the agreement between Russia and the other countries attending the conference. PROLONGED CONFERENCE.

LATER.
The Villa Raggio where the allied delegates are discussing the latest developments has all day long been the centre of interest for a hundred journalists who twice responded to an invitation to attend to hear the result of the deliberations and twice returned empty-handed.

The unexpectedly prolonged session created the belief that even more drastic action was being contemplated than contained in the letter which was published late in the evening. The letter, however, was couched in unequivocal terms, recalling Dr. Wirth's promise last week to cooperate with the other powers for a solution of outstanding Russian questions and pointing out that the German reply to the Allies' offer of goodwill and fellowship within the act which destroys the spirit of mutual confidence and have concluded a secret treaty behind the backs of their colleagues, a treaty which violated some of the principles on which the conference was based.

ALLIES' RESOLVE

The upshot of the Allies' action is that while the Germans will be permitted to enter the general discussion they will not be allowed to participate in any committee dealing with Russia.

The most unfortunate aspect of the matter which is likely to overshadow the remainder of the session of the conference is that anti-German and anti-Russian suspicion, notably on the part of France, will be considerably strengthened, impairing the atmosphere of harmony on which hopes of the conference's success were largely based.

FRANCE'S DECISION

PARIS, April 18.
The Cabinet has considered the situation created by the Russo-German agreement and has decided that France will only leave Genoa with the rest of the Allies.

A French semi-official telegram from Genoa says that as a condition of remaining at the conference France will ask the Allies to insist on annulment of the Russo-German agreement on the ground that it violates the Treaty of Versailles.

Meetings of the Commissions at Genoa have been suspended pending the decision of a meeting of allied delegates and experts to which Little Entente representatives, including M. Benes have been invited at the instance of M. Barthou.

AMERICAN COMMENT

NEW YORK, April 18.
Commenting on the Russo-German treaty, the New York World refuses to believe that the Russian and German bloc which has been a favourite nightmare for years has been effected. The paper declares that Germany is unable to supply the capital necessary for Russia's regeneration.

The Tribune says that Russia and Germany are both seeking to get rid of their debts and have taken this method of exciting western fears, but with the precarious Russian credit the alliance is either fiction or fraud.

The Herald says that co-operation between outcast Russia and enchaind Germany has long been inevitable.

FRENCH PRESS BOUSED

PARIS, April 18.
The Russo-German agreement which the Echo de Paris describes as the most important event since the armistice is generally regarded by the French press as proving the uselessness of the continuance of the Genoa conference.

Le Journal says: "We should congratulate ourselves on this alliance of conquered countries thirsting for revenge for it will restore the balance of the western alliance."

The Gaulois says it is probable that the steadily growing alliance should burst and urges the Entente completely to change front and punish the autocratic nations.

The Paris Journal declares the only thing lacking is a military convention which may still come at any moment.

The Figaro goes so far as to say the German challenge will be accepted by Britain and Italy, while the Standard's London correspondent says that the position at Berlin and Genoa is becoming more and more critical.

INDIAN OPINION.

GOVERNMENT'S STATEMENT.

CHINA'S PRODUCTION.

LONDON, April 18.
The India Office has issued a booklet entitled "The Truth about Indian Opium" recounting the successful steps taken by the Government of India to restrict the production and consumption of opium in India and regulate exports, regarding which it emphasises that India has far exceeded the demands of the Hague convention and points out that China produces seven times as much opium as India, Persia which remains outside the scope of the most important article of the convention exports 50 per cent. more than India, while Turkey which has not signed the convention normally exports about the same amount as India.

The booklet says that India would be thoroughly justified in refusing to agree to a modification of the terms of the convention in the direction of greater stringency until she is convinced that such modification will lead to beneficial results.

India is the only producing nation which could give practical effect to a proposal to bind the nations to restrict the production of opium to medicinal and scientific needs, which, apart from causing unimaginable sufferings in the East, would result in enormously increasing the production of opium in Persia, China and Turkey to be exported freely throughout the world.

India demands to see the terms of the convention translated into action by others and would undoubtedly enthusiastically negative any proposal aiming at suppressing Indian cultivation in order to provide a scapegoat for the rest of the world.

GENOVA MEETING.

GENOVA, April 18.
Germany, Switzerland, France, Britain, India, Japan, Holland and Siam will be represented at the second session of the opium commission which is being held to-morrow to deal with a proposal that the export of pernicious drugs should only be authorised by importation licences issued by the consignee countries.

PRINCE IN JAPAN.

PEACE EXHIBITION VISITED.

JAPANESE POLO.

TOKYO, TUESDAY.

The Prince of Wales spent the morning visiting the peace exposition at Ueno, the largest exhibition ever held in Japan and opened a month ago. The buildings, gay with red, white and blue and floral designs, house specimens of products of all countries.

After lunching at the Imperial Palace, the Prince witnessed a game of Japanese polo played by the staff of the imperial mews.

The Prince dined with the Foreign Minister.—(From Sir Herbert Russell, Reuter's Special Correspondent).

SERIOUS DAMASCUS RIOTS.

ANTI-FRENCH DEMONSTRATIONS.

CAIRO, April 18.

Following on anti-French demonstrations at Damascus on April 7 in which forty people were arrested, crowds assembled demanding their release. They ignored warnings to disperse and were fired on by the police with the result that two were killed and seven wounded. After the imposition of curfew the troops regained control of the situation.

The French point out that the disturbances synchronised with the visit of Mr. Crane, former president of the American mission to Syria in 1919 whose utterances though unintentional were calculated to arouse excitement among the anti-French section. Mr. Crane called out of Beirut immediately the disorders broke out.

COTTON WAGES DISPUTE.

PARTIAL SETTLEMENT REACHED.

LONDON, April 18.

Partial settlement of the cotton wages dispute has been reached. A conference of representatives of the employers and card rooms at Manchester arrived at an agreement with regard to the wages question subject to confirmation by the other operatives' unions.

[A London cable dated April 12 stated: Cotton industry negotiations in connection with reduction of operative wages have broken down and unless they are resumed 500,000 workers will be locked out on April 29.]

SOUTH CHINA.

BETTER TRADE OUTLOOK
FOR NEW YEAR.

It is now possible to obtain a general idea of the conditions which have obtained in business in South China during the very difficult period of the last 12 months, writes a special correspondent in the Trade Supplement of The Times. In many ways this part of the world has been more fortunate than various countries in Europe. Hongkong itself continues free from public debt, which is remarkable when it is remembered what enormous financial burdens crush most countries. There seems to be no great difficulty in maintaining the revenue of the Colony, despite the fact that opium does not provide the proportion that it did in the past. There is no drag of debt on local trade. In the early months of the year business was very quiet in South China, but from June until October there was a considerable revival, and on account of this improvement the foreign importers were able to unload the stocks of goods the accumulation of which had caused considerable anxiety earlier in the year.

The really satisfactory feature of the last few months has been the financial stability of the Chinese dealers. The critical period is always at the Chinese New Year. Despite the fact that there has been a Republic of China for 10 years, it is noticeable that the Chinese business men do not accept the new ideas from Europe concerning the division of a year into 12 months. During the past year there has been ample evidence of "political unrest" all over China. In these disturbances the Chinese are always a prominent factor.
It seems that when the rest of China is quiet, Canton is politically disturbed, and when the rest of China shows signs of unrest, Canton is determined to keep ahead. It is obviously bad for trade, and yet so remarkable is the commercial ability of the Cantonese merchant that he is able to do business under almost any disadvantages.
Fortunately, exchange has been comparatively steady during the last two or three months, and if during the next year, the politicians and the exchanges would keep steady, there would be a very big revival of trade in South China.

JAPANESE COMPETITION.

It has been stated that the Japanese are determined to work their mills full time from now onwards. If this is the case, and if things remain unsettled politically in South China, there will be severe competition. On the other hand, if traders could be sure of permanent security the South China market could take up all the Manchester goods that are likely to be sent out here.

There was difficulty in persuading some of the local native dealers to clear old orders, especially for woolens, during last year. Some of the British merchants of high standing were able to "persuade" their clients to meet their obligations. It was not altogether a question of wishing to repudiate contracts on the part of native dealers, but just the Oriental habit of waiting for better times.

TRADE TENDENCIES.

Much silk went to the United States and not very much to France in the early part of the year. The second crop of raw silk was disappointing, and, no doubt, the activity of the Japanese affected the market. It is noticeable that a grade of silk which sold at $970 in January was selling for $1,680 in December. The Canton silk trade is a most important item in South China commerce but the day will come when other goods, especially minerals, will form a more important element in the export trade of South China. Another commodity in which a considerable local trade is done is rice, but that is not of much interest to readers in Great Britain, except that much milling is done in Hongkong and machinery is being used for it more and more. There was a tendency to use crude oil engines, but electricity as a motive power is now much more in evidence.

Mention must be made of the efforts of the Government to encourage the growth of local industries. That has been done by pushing forward vigorously, the various reclamation schemes, particularly those in progress over the water in Kowloon. New factories will surely rise on the reclaimed areas. It is noticeable that the oil companies show signs of great activity, and one may take the greatly increased demand for kerosene and other oils as a sign that the Chinese are beginning to appreciate the advantages of using the gifts provided by nature for the convenience of man. Fortunately it is possible to write cheerfully of trade prospects of 1922. None of us should be too prophetic about politics in China, but Liang Shik-yi is known personally to the writer, who stated two years ago that the one hope for China was his financial ability. He is now Premier, and may do a great deal for trade in the Far East.

SOME ARE BORN GREAT.

BILLINGS-GATE HEIR TO THRONE OF AUSTRIA.

The Central News sends the Daily Chronicle the following amusing story, related by Mr. William Bright-well, who for many years has carried on the business of buyer in Billings-gate and Smithfield, in support of his claim to the Throne of Austria.

"I was born," he said, "in the Vatican, at Rome, at 2.5 a.m. on December 8, 1867. My father was Emperor Maximilian of Mexico, and my mother the Empress Charlotte—they called her Carlotta—only sister of the late Leopold I., King of the Belgians. I am registered in Italy as 'Franz Rudolf Maximilian.'"

After Maximilian was deposed, proceeds the story, the Empress went to Rome to secure assistance.

"My mother saw Pius IX," says Mr. Brightwell, "and whilst at the Vatican I was born. Owing to the worrying and anxious time my mother had passed through her mind became temporarily unbalanced. But my presence in the world was regarded as a distinct encumbrance, the consequence of being in direct succession to the throne of Austria apparently upsetting other calculations in this connection.

"I, at least, was not wanted, and was sent away from Rome, never to return; in fact, I was to be drowned.
Eventually I was brought to England, and one day was abandoned on the steps of a Catholic institution in Tottenham-road. I was taken to Hackney Infirmary, and was registered there as 'William Hertford, parents unknown.'"

"Then I was adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Brightwell, of Stoke Newington, whose name I adopted."

Mr. Brightwell states that he learned his history in Austria from a nephew of the personal servant to the Emperor Maximilian.

TAKE CARE OF YOURSELF.

If you want a clear head and good digestion you must not let your bowels become clogged with poisonous waste from the body, as it always is the case when you become constipated. It is a fact, an abundance of water and plenty of outdoor exercise would keep your bowels regular. When that fails you should take Chamberlain's Tablets. They cause a gentle movement of the bowels and are easy and pleasant to take.

FURTHER REMAND ON REDUCED BAIL.

E. A. Beaumont, who was arrested in Shanghai on a warrant charging him with leaving the Colony with intent to defraud bankruptcy proceedings brought against him here, again appeared in the police court this morning, this time before Magistrate Lindell as Mr. J. R. Wood shortly goes to the Summary Court to act as Puisse Judge while Mr. H. H. Gompertz is on leave.

Mr. G. G. N. Timson informed Magistrate Lindell that he had been instructed to watch the interests of certain interested parties in Shanghai. Mr. G. G. N. Timson, Official Receiver, said that he would require another week's remand.

Mr. C. A. S. Russ, for the defendant, again applied for a reduction in bail. When Beaumont was in Shanghai, he said, bail of $500 was allowed and defendant did not abscond, although he could easily have got away. The defendant, he continued, was quite prepared to meet the charges brought against him. It was impossible for his solicitor to prepare the defence if the defendant did not have his liberty. The defendant had a large business in Hongkong, which in 1919 amounted to $5,000,000 with profits $200,000. The turnover was much larger in 1920, and the profits were correspondingly large. Then a slump came and defendant lost all he had, and incurring heavy debts (as frequently happens in such cases) became insolvent. Mr. Russ said that he was prepared to lay all his cards on the table. The defendant went to Shanghai to raise money to meet his debts, but the banks refused to grant any loans. Then he went to San Francisco where he had a branch office, which was good for $100,000, but could not get that amount because he had nothing to show for it. He returned to Shanghai to try and make good. He did everything openly there, and was at all times in the jurisdiction of the Consular Court. Mr. Russ suggested bail in the sum of $1,000. It was doubtful, he thought, if the defendant could raise more. Defendant wanted to be able to get access to his witnesses and to books to prepare his defence. At the time the defendant left the Colony, said Mr. Russ, he was not exactly fixed in Hongkong. His interests were of an extensive character, covering many places besides the Colony. The collapse in Hongkong occurred while he was away from the Colony. As a matter of fact he was in France at the time. "I must get my client out to construct my defence properly," Mr. Russ concluded.

Mr. Orme said that after transactions of the amounts mentioned by Mr. Russ, he felt that the bail fixed by Mr. Wood should not be too large.

Magistrate: Yes, but he has already been in custody for a week. Mr. Orme said that if any other means could be found for securing the defendant, say if he were required to report himself from day to day, he had no wish to prevent him from having access to everything he wanted, also to Mr. Russ.

Magistrate: You are not prepared to put that responsibility on the police?

Mr. Orme: No.

Mr. Russ said that Beaumont was quite prepared to report every morning to the Official Receiver or to the Police if it were so desired. He did not think his client would wish to escape without a passport. As for the possibility of his going to Canton or Macao said Mr. Russ, there was always the extradition treaty with those ports.

Beaumont: I have no intention of leaving the Colony.

Mr. Russ: He has no desire to leave at all.

Mr. Lindell: Do I understand you are prepared to get $1,000 in cash or a security?

Mr. Russ: It is doubtful if he could raise $1,000 in cash.

Beaumont: I am not a man who would like to take French leave.

The Magistrate decided to fix bail in the sum of $2,000 in four securities of $500 each, conditional on the defendant undertaking to appear before the court to report himself every day.

A PU TOI BRAWL.

There was a clan fight over on Pu Toi Island the other day and two of the combatants were so badly hurt that they had to be brought over and sent to the Government Civil Hospital. Afterwards police officers journeyed across and arrested five men who were indicated by witnesses as having been concerned in the brawl. They appeared before Magistrate Wood to-day on a charge of having assaulted the two injured men and were remanded for a week.

COAL MERCHANT ROBBED.

Riding home last night along the Shaukiwan Road in his private riksha, Hok Sui Chuen, a Tai Hang coal merchant, was held up near St. Mary's Chapel by two men, one of whom brandished a revolver. They went through his pockets and took $35 from him. Afterwards they ran off towards Tai Hang.

to enable the defendant to help himself and his creditors. He did not wish to embarrass the defendant but he had a duty to discharge to the creditors and to the public, to see that Beaumont did not stay away from execution. Although he himself was prepared to believe that the defendant did not wish to get away, still there was the chance that he might get away.

Magistrate: Yes, but he has already been in custody for a week. Mr. Orme said that if any other means could be found for securing the defendant, say if he were required to report himself from day to day, he had no wish to prevent him from having access to everything he wanted, also to Mr. Russ.

Magistrate: You are not prepared to put that responsibility on the police?

Mr. Orme: No.

Mr. Russ said that Beaumont was quite prepared to report every morning to the Official Receiver or to the Police if it were so desired. He did not think his client would wish to escape without a passport. As for the possibility of his going to Canton or Macao said Mr. Russ, there was always the extradition treaty with those ports.

Beaumont: I have no intention of leaving the Colony.

Mr. Russ: He has no desire to leave at all.

Mr. Lindell: Do I understand you are prepared to get $1,000 in cash or a security?

Mr. Russ: It is doubtful if he could raise $1,000 in cash.

Beaumont: I am not a man who would like to take French leave.

The Magistrate decided to fix bail in the sum of $2,000 in four securities of $500 each, conditional on the defendant undertaking to appear before the court to report himself every day.

FRAUDULENT ORDER.

THREE MONTHS JAIL FOR CHINESE YOUTH.

The Chinese youth who was last week remanded on a charge of having obtained a bottle of quinine powder and two order books from the Sincere Co., by false pretences, was sentenced to three months' hard labour by Magistrate Wood this morning. It was alleged that the defendant obtained the quinine by representing that he was sent by Dr. C. F. Wang.

Defendant, in the witness box, admitted that he had signed the order in Dr. Wang's name without authority. He had no intention of defrauding the Company, he said. When he was employed by Dr. Wang he used to fill in the order forms and hand them to the doctor to sign. He then signed them himself as the person obtaining delivery. On this occasion he wrote down the office name of Dr. Wang by mistake—by force of habit—but he signed his own name at the bottom as the person who obtained the goods. The people at Sincere's all knew him and had he wanted to swindle the Company he would not have sent the bottle back.

Magistrate: It is a serious offence for two reasons, the first is that you defrauded the Company, and the second is that you forged Dr. Wang's name.

Defendant: I did not forge the doctor's name. I only used the name of his office.

Magistrate: In any case you used his name unlawfully. There is only one point in your favour, and that is that you returned the bottle of quinine. But you did not return this order book.

Defendant: No, I left them in a friend's house.

Sentence was then passed as reported above.

OBITUARY.

MR. DONALD URQUHART.

The death occurred at the Government Civil Hospital yesterday morning, of an old Chinese hand in the person of Mr. Donald ("Dan") Urquhart of Kowloon, a retired Chinese Maritime Customs officer. Sixty-four years of age at the time of his death, the deceased who was born in Inverness, Scotland, joined the Customs service over 20 years ago, and served at Tientsin, Shanghai, Canton, and nearly all the other stations. He retired a couple of years ago and took up residence at Kowloon with his family. An ardent Highlander the deceased had a very kind heart and won for himself large numbers of friends everywhere he went. He had been confined to bed for a long time. Death claimed him at 10 a.m., yesterday.

Much sympathy is felt for Mrs. Urquhart and their large family, who are all here excepting the eldest son "Saddy." The boys are all well known here in football, swimming and sporting circles generally.

The funeral passes the Monument at 5 p.m., to-day.

HONGKONG'S HEALTH.

PLAGUE FIGURES.

The return of notifiable disease for yesterday records 48 cases of plague, all Chinese, ten more than the total number for last week. Thirty-eight of yesterday's cases were fatal and 27 of last week's. These figures, it is stated, include the returns for the holiday period which were received from the Tung Wah Hospital yesterday.

The small-pox figures also showed a big increase yesterday, 17 cases being reported against 13 for the whole of last week. Yesterday there were thirteen deaths and last week ten. All the cases were Chinese.

Yesterday also saw reported two cases of cerebro spinal fever, one of enteric fever, and one of puerperal fever, all Chinese.

In addition to plague and small pox cases already mentioned there were reported last week one case of cerebro spinal fever (fatal), one of influenza (fatal) and two of enteric fever, all Chinese, also one of paratyphoid fever, British.

On Friday, April 21 at 6 p.m. the prize won at the Victoria Regatta will be presented by Mrs. Claud Severn. The Club will be at home to all those interested in the regatta. There will be a band in attendance. Tea will be served.

SIR CHARLES ADDIS ON CHINA.

London, April 17th.

Sir Charles Addis, in a statement supplied to Reuters' Agency, declares that the gravity of the political situation in China is exaggerated. There is no ground for quarrel between the North and South, and the political changes at Peking, are mainly Cabinet changes, not implying any alteration in the method of Government.

China has always emerged from such vicissitudes as a homogeneous nation, and doubts will do so again. The only obstacle to union is the Military Government, who usurp the Government and divert the revenue and otherwise oppress the people; but there are signs that the people are growing active and combining against military despotism. If a fiscal boycott is established the reign of these despots will be short-lived.

Meanwhile foreign trade is not so affected as might be supposed as it is pointed out that exports and imports for the year

1920 constituted a record, while the yield from Customs Revenue and the Salt

Gabelle was greater than ever. Even the railways showed a surplus. When a

The Rules of the Game.—What an excellent thing it would be if we could codify the laws of society! What a boon it would be to the nervous young men and maidens at their first ball or first country house party! Clearly and succinctly would be set down the correct line of procedure for a girl who has stood for two hours in the doorway of a ball-room, awaiting a partner. The youth who hesitates at the door of the breakfast-room, wondering whether he should enter walking straight to the hot dishes, or whether he should first say "Good-morning" to his hostess, and whether he should shake hands with her or bow to her or kiss her, and whether he should take any notice of his host or cut him dead—these and a thousand similar problems would be swiftly and satisfactorily settled by reference to the book of rules. (From an article under the above title, by Lady Diana Cooper, in the April issue of the London Magazine.)

PRISON STORIES.

SENSATIONAL DARTMOOR
ESCAPE.

The current issue of the London Magazine contains many good things but none more interesting than an article entitled "The Diary of a Prisoner (Governor)." by Sir Basil Thompson K.C.B., who tells among other remarkable incidents the story of a convict's sensational escape.

"In 1888, when my time as deputy governor of Dartmoor was drawing to a close, there was a sensational escape from No. 5 prison, one of the new erections which was believed to be escape-proof. A convict named John Morgan had concealed the head of a sledgehammer in his clothing when he came in from work, and the warden searching him had failed to detect it.

It was a Sunday evening, and as the wardens slammed door after door in serving the supper, he beat out the cast-iron framework of his window with blows timed to coincide with the slamming of the doors. At that time there were no guard-bars to the window except on the ground floor.

When all became quiet Morgan stripped himself to the skin, threw his clothes out of the window, and then, with a rope made of sheets, he let himself down, after squeezing through an aperture barely large enough to admit his head, and cutting himself rather deeply with the jagged iron in the process. It was not the first case at Dartmoor in which convicts had shown that an aperture just large enough for the head was just large enough for the body. Once on the ground he had only to dodge the night watchman and to climb into the artisans' yard to find means for scaling the boundary wall. Desperate though he was, he found two nights on the moor enough for him; a farmer near Chagford rode him down on a pleasure horse, brought him in under the muzzle of an empty shot-gun, and handed him over to the police.

Another remarkable escape was made from Packhurst Prison. Sir Basil Thompson tells the story as follows: A convict escaped during the night and broke into the house of a clergyman. After regaling himself in the larder he wandered into the bed-room, where the clergyman, his wife, and a fox-terrier were sleeping.
None of them awoke. Leaving his own clothes on the floor, he dressed himself hastily in clerical costume and, with the family Bible under his arm, made his way to the beach. There he found a boat, but as the dawn was breaking and he could not see, he put to sea as he was. The coastguard, scanning the horizon in the early morning, was startled by the apparition of a clergyman drifting in the fairway without oars, and placidly reading the Bible.
He put out to the rescue, thinking he had to do with a curate of deranged intellect, and not until they got ashore, and found a hue and cry had been raised, did he realize he had caught an escaped convict.

This number of the London Magazine contains much that is interesting and much that is amusing. An article that comes under both headings is Lady Diana Cooper's "The Rules of the Game." The "game," it may be explained, is modern society. Other writers who contribute to this issue are John Braham, Muriel Hine, H. de Vere Stacpoole, and Andrew Soutar—well known names all.

THE economy of the Studebaker LIGHT-SIX is based on fact, not theory. The above average obtained under a variety of conditions—on dirt roads, over mountainous trails and through crowded city streets—is concrete evidence of its low petrol consumption.

The unusual economy of the LIGHT-SIX is due to its light, evenly-balanced chassis, and its patented Internal Hot-Spot, which is an exclusive Studebaker feature.
